Program Source Codes – contains source code of the program; access only if you are a developer; further instructions are available inside.

Presentation (Demo and Video) – contains the script used for live demo and video, the demo slides, and the recorded video.

Documentation – contains the SRS, supporting documents and supporting diagrams; further instructions are available inside.